

14TH JOINT EUROPEAN THERMODYNAMICS CONFERENCE - MAY 21-25 2017 - BUDAPEST, HUNGARY

Website: jetc2017.hu

Venue: Budapest University of Technology and Economics, Building Q

SAVE THE DATE! May 21-25 2017

Thermodynamic methods and concepts appear in various areas of physics, engineering, sciences and humanities. This wide range of applicability is a source of inspiration, but also a cause of separation and divergence. The aim of this conference is to improve the interaction and pull together the various application areas and theoretical branches in order to develop a more powerful and more applicable discipline.
